PROSPERITY ASSURED

DEVELOPMENT BOARD BULLETIN
CONTAINS MANY INTER-ESTING ITEMS

The monthly bulletin of the California development board contains some interesting items:

Two new irrigation projects are placing water on 20,000 acres of land in Shasta valley, near Montague, and a power company is extending its lines in the same territory for light and water.

Plans for the subdivision and marketing of the 17,000-acre Santa Rosa ranch, Santa Barbara county, are completed and the land will soon be on the market.

A tract of 1400 acres in Yolo county has been purchased by an English syndicate, which will devote the entire ranch to raising fine bred stock.

The city of Richmond has let the final contract for the tunnel and wharf, which will give it full control of the water front. It will have a direct ferry line to the Panama-Pacific international exposition.

Practically the entire stretch between Lone Tree and Honcut, comprising 3000 acres, has been brought under irrigation with water secured from wells, none of which require a greater depth than fifty feet.

Stockmen are bringing feeders into the state by thousands, owing to the abundant pasture.

The first Chul wheat has just been harvested in California, near Waterford, in Stanislaus county.

Kings county is shipping a record crop of barley, which is a bumper crop this year all over the state. It is estimated by one of the best authorities in the trade at 1,000,000 tons.

The pack of canned fruits in California promises to make a new large record. Good authorities place it at 25 or 30 per cent larger than last season. A number of new canneries are in operation, all running to capacity.

Green fruit shipments have not been interfered with, there having been 1026 cars shipped up to the 17th inst., against 477 last year.

Citrus fruit shipments to the 15th inst. were 38,503 carloads (of which 6417 were lemons), against 15,100 carloads (oranges and lemons) same date last year.

California production of oil for May was close to 9,500,000 barrels, probably the largest in the petroleum history of the state or the world. At the rate so far, the production for the year will be over 100,000,000 barrels, worth $60,000,000.

From results obtained at Folsom and Bakersfield, as well as in Tulare county, the growing of Turkish tobacco promises to become a general industry in several counties.

California's auto registrations for June were 4380, according to the report of the department of engineering.

Ten of the exhibition palaces of the Panama-Pacific exposition are already completed. The other two main buildings are 95 per cent finished and exhibits can be installed at any time. One installation, involving an expenditure of $700,000, has been commenced in machinery hall. San Diego is also pushing its buildings rapidly toward completion.

ORANGE BELT CELEBRATION

Plans are complete for a monster celebration at San Bernardino tomorrow in celebration of the completion of the Pacific Electric railroad connecting that city with Los Angeles.

A special train, the first to run over the new road from Los Angeles to San Bernardino, will carry a number of distinguished persons as the guests of the Los Angeles chamber of commerce.

Following its arrival the silver spike in an orange wood tie will be driven by Mayor Rose and the mayor of San Bernardino. After this will take place the historic pageant, showing the developments of transportation from the time of the padres to the present day.

The old customs will be revived, Spanish carts, stage coaches, prairie schooners, mule cars, horse cars and the first electric cars. As far as possible the old drivers and motormen and conductors are being hunted up to take their original positions in the parade.

The exhibits will be parked at Urbita Springs park in the afternoon to remain there until Monday, and a special carnival is to be held there following the festivities at San Bernardino proper.

Mrs. E. B. Elias and daughter, Miss Emily Elias of Myrtle street, were entertained recently in the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Peckham of 125 South Jackson street and also in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Stacks of Los Angeles.

LOSES DAMAGE CASE

CITY OF LONG BEACH HELD RESPONSIBLE IN AUDITORIUM ACCIDENT

The jury in the first damage suit against the city of Long Beach growing out of the auditorium disaster a year ago, brought in a verdict which placed the legal responsibility for the accident upon the city of Long Beach and awarded to George Chafor and his eight-year-old son damages in the amount of $7500 for the death of Mrs. Edith Chafor, the wife and mother. The amount asked was $15,500.

The case will be appealed to the supreme court of the state and the trial of other damage suit cases will be held in abeyance pending the decision of the higher court, with the possible exception that one of the cases in which members of the former city administration were specifically named as defendants may go to trial in the meantime in the superior court.

The battle over the Chafor case began June 15 and the jury's verdict was rendered Wednesday evening. A supreme court decision on the case will probably not be secured for at least a year.

SIX O'CLOCK DINNER

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Evans used a color combination of yellow and white for the dinner party Wednesday evening, when they entertained informally at dinner in their home.

A crystal basket of Shasta daisies and tulip repoted in the center of the table, the setting of which was completed by individual ribbon-tied baskets filled with nuts and bonbons.

Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Jackson, Misses Bertha and Elizabeth Jackson and Mr. Maurice Jackson of Kentucky.

AFTERNOON OF CARDS

As a courtesy to Mrs. H. H. Beckwith of Pasadena and Mrs. A. H. Stephens of Bowling Green, Ky., Mrs. R. E. Frey of 1535 Pioneer drive entertained most delightfully at cards in her home Wednesday afternoon. The national colors were used for decorating purposes and were also carried out in the refreshments and tallies used for Five Hundred.

Sixteen ladies were invited to meet the honored guests and one and all enjoyed the entire affair immensely.

PERSONAL ITEMS

Mr. E. B. Elias of 1456 Myrtle street enjoyed two days recently at San Diego, where he devoted his time to fishing.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hobbs and family of Central avenue have returned from a delightful outing at one of the local beach resorts.

Mr. David L. Gregg of 206 South Central avenue has returned from Prescott, Arizona, where he went several days ago on business.

Miss Inez Harrison of 245 South Kenwood street and Elizabeth Edmonds of 421 Cedar street went to Van Nuys Thursday to spend the remainder of the week with Miss Inez's sister, Mrs. H. N. Lennox.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Clearwater of Bakersfield were in Glendale one day this week as guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Goode, 231 South Kenwood street.

On Tuesday last Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Anderson of 203 Orange street were called to Merrill, Oregon, by a telegram that stated their son Chas. was seriously injured by his team of horses. His recovery is doubtful and it is also feared that Mrs. Anderson's health has been affected by the shock.

BROTHERHOOD MEETING

OLD-TIME FIDDLERS NIMBLE UP THE JOINTS OF THE ASSEMBLAGE

The members of the San Fernando Valley Federated Brotherhood held their quarterly banquet in the new Masonic temple, South Brand boulevard, Thursday evening. A chicken pie dinner was served at 6:30 by the ladies of the Congregational church. The ladies received many compliments praising the excellent service they gave. During a portion of the dinner hour, Mr. Manson of Los Angeles and Howard M. Goss of this city gave a rare violin musical treat in the form of old-time music. It was the kind that set the feet and fingers of the chairman in motion and it even revived the muscular movements of some of the more sedate ones, who remarked, "When young I often danced all night to music like that!" Even the middle-aged ladies who were waiting on the tables glided over the smooth floors with a gracefulness that attracted the attention of the banqueters.

Prof. H. L. Howe, president of the Federation, who presided over the deliberations, introduced Rev. James A. Geissinger, pastor of the University church, Los Angeles, who spoke for an hour on "California Dry." Rev. Geissinger is one of the state workers in the "dry" campaign, and is therefore well informed as to the progress of the dry movement. He gave out figures that indicate that the country cities are the dry centers. He said according to present information San Francisco will go wet seven to one, but on the other hand, such cities as Pomona, Pasadena and other cities of their class will vote overwhelmingly dry.

Rev. Geissinger believes California will go dry at the election next November. He said public sentiment is against the influences of the saloon. The more the liquor dealers work, the more the rank and file of the voters of the state are opposed to their nefarious business.

The speaker said the argument used that declaring California a dry state will deprive thousands of liquor dealers and saloon keepers of their accustomed occupation has no more sense to it than the argument that anti-tuberculosis remedies will deprive tuberculosis specialists and nurses of their accustomed occupation.

At the conclusion of the speaker's address, Chairman Howe advised that a resolution be passed approving of the action of the board of trustees of the city of Glendale in keeping on their records without change the moving picture ordinance, which said board of trustees had been requested to modify. On motion of Prof. A. M. Brooks, a resolution was adopted by a standing vote sanctioning the actions of the board of trustees.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

The series of evangelistic meetings will close this evening with a special sermon by the pastor. All members of the church, both young and old, are expected as far as possible to be present at 7:45.

The twilight communion service during the past two years has been of marked interest, and the indications are that the service next Sunday evening will show a definite increase over preceding years. A number of new members will be received. The service will commence at six o'clock sharp.

MRS. GRAFIOUS ENTERTAINS

Mrs. L. H. Grafious proved herself a very charming hostess Wednesday afternoon when she entertained the members of the Elrose Street Thimble Club in her home, 144 Elrose street.

The rooms were prettily decorated with nasturtiums and until 4 o'clock the guests busied themselves with needlework. At that hour a delicious afternoon luncheon was served in the dining-room to Mrs. A. Fleming, Mrs. Charles Foss, Mrs. J. Gibbs, Mrs. Van Osdel, Mrs. William Workman and Mrs. Cocald.

Mrs. Charles Foss of 131 Elrose street will be the next hostess to the club members.

GUESTS ENTERTAINED

Miss Daphne Burlingham very charmingly entertained with a luncheon at her beautiful home, "Rose Villa," Thursday afternoon. The graceful arrangement of pink hydrangeas and ferns added to the attractive decorations. The guests for whom Miss Burlingham entertained were Miss Margaret Lusby, Miss Lavina Banker and Miss Mabel Dunham.

NORTH GLENDALE

The musical given under the auspices of the Casa Verdugo M. E. church Thursday evening at the North Central avenue schoolhouse was a decided success. An appreciative audience greeted the artists who participated in the entertainment of the evening. Each number was especially attractive and the encores were liberal enough for—well, even the small boy was satisfied. Many thanks are due the friends who so cheerfully rendered the following program: Vocal solo, Mr. R. D. Jones; piano solo, selected, Dorothy Lee; violin solo, Eva Noble; readings, Mrs. R. D. Jones; vocal duet, Dr. J. E. Eckles and Mr. E. P. Dourte; vocal solo, Mr. C. H. Cunningham; vocal solo, Mrs. C. H. Cunningham. Proceeds of the entertainment will be used to lift the debt on the church piano.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Clement of 1321 North Pacific avenue are looking forward with much pleasure to the arrival of their daughter-in-law, Mrs. E. F. Clement, and little daughter, Miss Mae, from Lindsay, Cal., who will spend several weeks with them.

Mr. George Pickrell, who for the past two years has occupied the residence located at 1420 Valley View road, will move to Los Angeles with his family and will be located at 616 Norton avenue.

Mrs. F. Osborn of 1025 San Rafael street is entertaining as her house guest for a fortnight her cousin, Mr. Kenneth Stephens, of East Second street, Long Beach.

Mr. Charles Sparks of 1660 Ruth street left recently for Milford, Utah, to join his brothers, who have extensive mining interests in that locality.

Mrs. W. G. Collins of 1016 North Central avenue is spending a fortnight in Long Beach, where she is the house guest of her daughter, Mrs. L. W. Still.

Mrs. Carl B. Haig and family of 1008 San Rafael street is home again after a delightful two weeks spent at Santa Monica.

Mrs. C. H. Cunningham of 1025 Fairview avenue, with Mrs. Frank S. Fell of Glendale Heights, enjoyed a day's outing at Seal Beach last Tuesday.

Mr. Herbert Collins of 1016 North Central avenue has returned from an extended visit with friends in Moor Park, Cal.

Mrs. L. J. Farnum of 910 San Rafael street, with her daughter, is enjoying a few days at Venice.

BIRTHDAY DINNER

The home of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Davis, 515 Orange Grove avenue, was the scene of a youthful stag party Thursday evening when in celebration of the fifteenth birthday of their son Lawrence, a delicious 6 o'clock dinner was served. Hydrangeas and other table adornments were of pink, the floral offering having been in the center and the other little tributes and conceits scattered about the snow white cloth that held covers for eight.

A beautiful cake, the frosting of which was pierced with fifteen lighted candles, was also introduced, and out by the honoree, who received hearty congratulations and the customary thumps from those present.

OFF ON LONG TRIP

OFF FOR EXTENSIVE TOUR IN STUDEBAKER FOR POINTS IN THE NORTH

W. R. Phelon, popular local manager for the Southern California Gas company, captained a party that left at four o'clock this morning in his seven-passenger Studebaker on a tour through the state towards the North. The machine has been especially arranged for carrying all sorts of collapsible and folding camp outfits, including tents, tables, chairs, etc., and the members of the party will camp enroute wherever they may be when Old Sol sets for the night. Yosemite will be visited, as well as the beautiful country between here and there, and then the party will visit Sacramento, San Francisco and other points of interest in the northern part of the state.

Mr. Phelon is expected to pilot the party to the peak of Mount Lassen before they return, as their itinerary included every point of interest in that portion of the country.

Members of this enjoyable party are Mr. and Mrs. Harry Whaley and son Kenneth, Alvin Sanders, and Mr. and Mrs. Phelon and son Billy.

Two or three weeks will be consumed on the trip leisurely north, but the return will be more hurried. Mr. Phelon is an exceptionally fine driver, his car is in perfect condition and the members of the party are assured the trip of their lives.

OPENING OF GLENDALE PIGEON LOFTS

The Glendale Pigeon Lofts will be open for inspection on Saturday, July 11, from 2 to 5 p. m. and on Sunday, July 12, from 10 a. m. to 5 p. m. The people of the valley and all others are invited and will be cordially welcomed on this occasion. The Glendale Pigeon Lofts are the largest in the West, having more than 8000 birds in captivity. The location is at Sixth street and Verdugo road. An enormous expenditure is involved in this enterprise and it is one of which Glendale may well be proud. The management is anxious to show the people of the valley what they have.

RETURN WITH FIRST PRIZE

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Dominy and daughter, Miss Joyce Dominy of 1119 West Seventh street, returned Thursday from a week's outing at Venice, where they entered their beautiful St. Bernard pet, "Judge," in the Bayside Kennel Show. Not only did these vacationers return with accounts of a splendid outing, but they also have brought with them a huge silver loving cup that was awarded "Judge" as first prize. Quite naturally the entire family are more than proud of this dog, who on several occasions has won similar laurels, and well might they cherish such sentiments, too, for he is certainly worthy of such distinction, regardless of the "Judge."

P. L. FERRY ATTENDS GOLDEN JUBILEE AT DENVER

Peter L. Ferry left this morning for Denver, Colorado, where he represents the Glendale lodge of Elks at the Golden Jubilee of the Grand Lodge. Mr. Ferry left in company with the Los Angeles delegation in a special train of seven cars. They will go by way of the Grand Canyon and anticipate a delightful trip to and from Denver, to say nothing of the pleasures of meeting with other members of the Antlered Herd and the good times arranged for the delegates to this fiftieth annual session of the Grand Lodge.

On this occasion this bunch of otherwise bashful fellows will not hesitate to make themselves heard and to sing the praises of Sunny Southern California.

HONORS FORMER SCHOOLMATE

A very enjoyable dinner party was given by Mrs. J. J. Freeman at her home, 262 West Fifth street, the guest of honor being Mrs. Dawes of Minneapolis, Minn., a former schoolmate of the hostess. Mrs. Dawes is the wife of Edwin Munott Dawes, a landscape artist of unusual distinction and ability. His trip to California was made expressly for the Santa Fe, with which railroad he is now in co-operation.

Other out-of-town guests were Mrs. Chas. Hannold and Mrs. O. R. Ervin of Pasadena. Floral decorations were gold and white, Shasta daisies and old-time Zinnias being in evidence everywhere.

Mrs. Charles H. Toll of 1635 Kenneth road is entertaining the executive board of the P. T. A. Federation in her home this afternoon.

REVIVE OLD CUSTOMS

CLUB LADIES TRANSFORM THE THORNTON HOME INTO FAIRYLAND

The beautiful home of Col. and Mrs. Tom C. Thornton at the intersection of Central avenue and Riverdale drive was a veritable fairyland—Thursday evening when the lyric section of the Tropic Thursday Afternoon club, of which Mrs. Thornton is chairman, gave a French Fete. Japanese lanterns of dainty pastel shades were festooned throughout the large and spacious grounds. From trees and shrubbery colored lights gleamed. Persian rugs and Navajo blankets were arranged in cozy nooks for those who desired a quiet tete-a-tete. Booths decorated in pastel shades were dotted over the lawn, at which candles, bonbons, punch and ices, coffee and chocolate were served. Club ladies attired in gowns and powdered wigs of the 1774 period served. The large cement tennis court, which is enclosed in vines, was seated for the large audience who enjoyed the delightful program that was rendered under the skillful management of Miss Helen Beatrice Cooper, musical director of the lyric section. Miss Cooper very cleverly selected one of the most enchanting and artistic spots of the court for the participants. On either side were trellises of trailing vines, the dainty blossoms of which emitted a perfume that pervaded the atmosphere. At the rear of the improvised stage tall trees arose in sublimity and gave a background that is found nowhere else only in sylvan glens and shady dells. The enchantment of the whole scene was complete when the twenty-four members of the lyric section appeared in costumes of the Marie Antoinette period. Six of the ladies wore gowns of pale pink, skirt of pink shimmering satin, draped panniers and bodices of pink brocade satin. Six others appeared in pale blue, another half dozen in pale green and the remaining in pale yellow. Each participant wore a powdered wig. French slippers and one need but remember the old-fashioned plates of the seventeenth century, to realize that the replica was complete.

As Mrs. Helen De Gaston, accompanist, in a beautiful gown of old rose pink and looking like a court lady of Marie Antoinette period, crossed the court and seated herself at the piano, Miss Helen Beatrice Cooper, in old rose pink appeared. With queenly grace, Miss Cooper ascended the rose-embowered dais and then appeared the twenty-four members of the lyric section. The enchanted audience sat in wonder, then after drinking in the beautiful scene burst forth in continued applause. The first number rendered, "Twas April" (Nevin), was just what the audience expected from the splendid voices of the lyric section. An encore, a Southern melody, "Old Black Joe," with Mrs. Dorothy Van Wie as soloist, received the same generous applause. Miss Helen Beatrice Cooper, who is a noted dramatic soprano, gave two numbers, "Carmena" (H. Lane Wilson), and a ballad, to the pleasure of all. As her clear flute-like notes wafted among the leafy branches of the trees, the thought of singing birds appealed to many of her delighted hearers. Another number by the lyric section, "Barcarolle" (Lovely Night), by Offenbach-Sherwood, and then Mrs. Eustace Benton Moore, the famed reader of child dialect, appeared and received a splendid ovation. (a) Mamy's Lullaby (Dvorak-Spross), (b) Cupid Made Love to the Moon (Smith), with Mrs. Fay Brown soloist, were given by the lyrics. All were on the qui vive when Mrs. John Seamon in a pink gown and Mr. Harlbert Harrison in full evening dress appeared and gave Poly Tango as arranged by Mr. Harrison. This graceful dance as given by Mrs. Seamon and Mr. Harrison, who interpreted the rhythm and poetry of the dance, appealed to all and the dancers responded with a tango encore. The program closed with the lyric section giving "Good Night, Good Night, Beloved" (Pinsutti). The remainder of the evening was devoted to dancing on the tennis court. The beautiful Thornton home was opened to those who enjoyed cards. Miss Minnie Thornton, the accomplished sister of Col. Thornton, in a beautiful embroidered gown, was assisted by Mrs. Mary Edwards in a costume of pink satin of the Marie Antoinette period in the entertainment of the guests. Miss Cooper was assisted by Mrs. Willis M. Kimball, Miss Lydia Payro, Mrs. Eustace B. Moore, Mrs. Helen De Gaston and Mrs. E. J. Pruess in rendering so successfully this French Fete, which was the most recherche event given this season.
